Problem 3: Arbitration

AM Sports, a TV distribution company initiated an arbitration in a dispute against the Wings, an international sports federation based on the Arbitration clause pursuant to a broadcast rights distribution agreement. The agreement related to the exclusive broadcast distribution of sports competitions to television audiences in Asia and the Pacific regions. The dispute resolution clause in the agreement provided that the dispute be decided by a sole arbitrator, the place of arbitration be Paris, France, and the law applicable to the substance of the dispute be Indian Law. The TV distribution company claimed damages for breach of contract.

Thus, a sole arbitrator experienced in media and sport issues is appointed and the matter is before the sole arbitrator for arbitration proceedings.
